OUR MODEL PRAYER PT 6

MATTHEW 6:5-15

INTRODUCTION: The forgiveness of sin is the central problem of life. Sin is a sense of separation from God, and is the major tragedy of humanity. Jesus “bore our sins in His body on the cross that we, having died to sins, might live unto righteousness.” I Peter 2:24 Since we have been forgiven our major debt – sin and its consequences – let us forgive those who are in debt to us. As we pray this model prayer, we come face to face with the truth that we cannot hold anything against anyone. We are to forgive others as our Father has forgiven us.

A. FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS AS WE FORGIVE OUR DEBTORS.

1. _____ is not an _____, it is mandatory. V. 14,15
2. In this _____, we actually make the _____ that we _____ those who are in _____ to us.
3. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, _____ one another, _____ God in the Anointed One _____ you. Ephesians 4:32
4. _____ those who persecute you; bless and _____ not. Romans 12:14
5. Bearing with one another, and _____ each other, just as the Lord _____ you, so also should you. Colossians 3:13
6. _____ does not take into _____ a wrong _____. I Cor. 13:5
7. Love _____ all, _____ all, _____ all. I Cor. 13:7
8. _____ never _____. I Cor. 13:8
9. _____ works by _____. Galatians 5:6
10. I must be _____ to forgive.

The method of forgiving is to get in a quiet place alone and say, “I fully and freely forgive ____; I loose him and let him go. I completely forgive the whole situation in question. As far as I am concerned, it is finished forever. I cast the burden of resentment upon Jesus. _____ is free now, and I am free too, I pray God’s blessings on him in every area of his life, in the name of Jesus.”
