GALATIANS 2:19, 20

INTRODUCTION: When Jesus was crucified, I was crucified. He was my substitute. In the mind of Justice, when He died, I died. Dr. Livingstone entered covenant with the Chief of a tribe in Africa through a representative. The marks of the covenant were actually put on their representatives or substitutes.

Everything Jesus did, He did for me. He was my substitute. As I identify with Him in His death, burial and resurrection, I also identify with Him that the works He did on this earth, I will do also. Jesus became man on my level so that I could be brought up to His. Heb 2:13,14; Eph 2:6

In times of crisis I will not rise to the occasion, but will default to my highest level of training.

To carry away in the Greek means to bear or life with the idea of removal. To take the debt of sin and sickness upon one's self and carry it as his own.
