RIGHTEOUSNESS "F"

ROM 1:1; 15-17; HEB 10:1-18

INTRODUCTION: "Righteousness means the ability to stand in Father's presence without a sense of guilt, condemnation, or inferiority. A redemption that would be worthy of God must accomplish this. Man had been estranged from God. He must be reconciled back to God. When Adam sinned, he separated himself from the fellowship of the Father. The whole drama of Redemption is consummated in this – man must be restored to perfect fellowship with the Father and it must be done on legal grounds." Any Redemption that does not restore to man a perfect fellowship and a perfect relationship on legal grounds will not be worthy of the Father and will not lift man into the place that God has planned for him."

"When we accept Jesus Christ as Savior that righteousness becomes a part of our being because we become partakers of Divine Nature. Divine Nature is righteousness, so we become righteousness with His nature – His own righteousness." E. W. Keynon, Two Kinds of Righteousness
